JUDICIAL BRANCH OF THE FEDERATION

Federal Criminal Justice Center in the State of Baja California, residing in Mexicali

[redacted]

CERTIFICATE OF REVIEW OF PRECAUTIONARY MEASURE

Mexicali, Baja California, February 16, 2024.

The decision made in the hearing held on today's date regarding the review of the precautionary measure is hereby recorded in writing, in accordance with the provisions of Article 67, Criminal , National Code of [redacted] Procedures, Section V of the

By virtue of the determination issu[redacted]on incident related to the amparo trial of February 13, 2024, in which [redacted] Fourth District Judge in the [redacted]ali, granted the provisional suspension to [redacted] for the following purposes:

[redacted]

"[...]

Establishing the situation in which things will remain and measures to preserve the subject matter of the protection with respect to the imposition of the precautionary measure consisting of preventive detention In view of the above, based on sections 128, 131 and 139 of the Amparo Law, it is deemed appropriate to GRANT the provisional suspension regarding the imposition of the precautionary measure consisting of preventive detention requested by the complainant, so that the responsible authority, within FORTY-ONE HOURS after its notification, proceeds to set a hearing to review the precautionary measure, and, disregarding the considerations adopted in the contested act when imposing the ex officio preventive detention, dictates a different one, following the guidelines of this determination, and in case those analyzed are not sufficient to achieve the objective sought (that is, to ensure the presence of the accused in the procedure, guarantee the safety of the victim or offended party or the witness, or avoid obstruction of the procedure - in accordance with article 153 of the National Code of Criminal Procedure -) may impose preventive detention, but in a justified manner, that is to say in a founded and motivated. [...]."

[redacted]

Once the above was delineated, the determination contained in the hearing of February 11, 2024, was declared void, solely with respect to the precautionary measure of ex officio preventive detention.

Thus, after debate between the parties, it was determined appropriate to impose on the ac[redacted]ary measures provided for in Article 155, Sections [redacted]iminal Procedure, consisting of:

a) Periodic monthly appearance before the General Directorate of Procedural Security of the Specialized Bodies Unit by Competence of the National Guard; for which the accused must appear on the thirtieth of each month or the following business day, in order to obtain his signature for registration purposes, starting next February 29 and until this process is finally resolved

b) Display a financial guarantee in the amount of $ (pesos in national [redacted] currency), which must be displayed before this jurisdictional body in any of the forms established by law, within a period of no more than five business days.

Pursuant to the above, the immediate release of the accused was decreed solely and exclusively for the purposes of this criminal case.

Send a certified copy of this certificate to the Fourth District Court in the State of Baja California, residing in this city, for any applicable legal purposes.

The reasoning and motivation justifying the decisions based on this action are supported by the audio and video record kept for this purpose in the Comprehensive Case Tracking System

This w[redacted]by the Specialized District Judge of the Accusatory Criminal System of the Federal Criminal Justice Center in the State of Baja California, residing in Mexicali, in his capacity as Control Judge